Steps on the way

To help you on your way follow these steps as you read:

PRAY

before you read, asking God to help you understand.

READ

the Bible passage for the day – preferably more than once.

REFLECT

on the passage. Write your thoughts in a journal.

APPLY

what God teaches you from His Word to your life.

PRAY

again, asking God to live out His Word.

E100 Bible Reading Challenge!

You are one of millions of Christians throughout the world who have taken the challenge to read E100 this year. Support one another through daily prayer.

You can do it!

If reading the Bible from cover to cover seems daunting, follow the E100, an exciting plan to read through the Bible in one year. It takes you to 50 essential passages from the Old Testament and 50 essential passages from the New Testament which help you get the big picture. Track your progress by ticking off the passage as you read. You can start any time you want.

How do I begin?

1. Choose a Bible that's easy for you to read.
2. Choose a time and a place to read every day.
3. Track your progress by ticking the passages as you read.
4. Join a friend or a reading group.
5. Make it a family project.

Visit our website to order Bibles in all 11 official languages, download free Scripture resources and get more information about the Bible on your cellphone.
